The Alicorn Chalice Timothy D. Weiner

Join the Brothers Varson as they are caught up in a great journey (quite against their will) to spy on the enemies of their homeland. Perhaps, though, these pirates are not as malicious as they have been portrayed. As an allegory, I have attempted to use this story to demonstrate Christian doctrine through a creative medium. I am not trying to create any new theology within the pages of this book, nor am I attempting to pose anything other than orthodox teaching. This book is the first I've completed. It was written and completed as part of the NaNoWriMo challenge, which means it was completed in 30 days, and contains over 50,000 words.
