The Book of Dares for Lost Friends Jane Kelley

Val and Lanora have been friends forever. Val expects their relationship to stay the same. But after they start middle school, Lanora decides to reinvent herself. Her parents have split up, and she wants to rise above that. Unfortunately Lanora's choices lead her into trouble. Val hates watching her friend lose her way. She wants to rescue Lanora, but how? Val doesn't know what to do until a stray cat leads her to a strange boy who lives in an even stranger bookshop. Together they embark on a quest. Will they be able to save a lost friend? Will they get lost themselves? Or will they find a way to help each other become who they want to be

Jane Kelley has created a nuanced, universal story about friendship and that delicate time of adolescence when there is much to lose and much more to find.

Danielle Hawkins:

As a university student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or even make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's internal or real their pastime. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring and can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country.
