The Goldschmidt Passover Haggadah (Hebrew) (Hebrew Edition) Daniel Goldschmidt

The book includes the origins of Haggada, its history through generations, as well as verified original versions, photos of the oldest Haggada from Cairo Geniza and written or printed editions of the rarest samples. The woodcuts from the page 111 and onward were collected from a haggada that was printed in Prague in 1527. There is an attached list of abbreviated foreign places and in addition, a selection of written or printed examples from various haggadot with the comments by the editor, Moshe Spitzer.
