For those who love collecting, but crave inspiration to find new and creative ways to display your beloved collection, Country Living is here to provide the spark.

Every month, the magazine features homes where imaginative owners showcase their collections in eye-opening ways; these are the very best of those ideas. Enticing photographs present such charming items as a flock of miniature sheep gathered in a cabinet, elegant McCoy vases assembled on a sideboard, pink lusterware plates hung en masse on the wall. Find out about basic design principles for arranging pieces, editing a collection, lighting, building custom shelves, and more. No matter whether the treasures consist of pottery, menus, or birdhouses, this is the only guide a collector needs to create dazzling displays everywhere.
