Io Dico Bye Bye (Italian Edition) Luigi Savagnone

Un narratore racconta un romanzo che ha letto qualche giorno prima: Anna e Lucia sono due ragazze di origine italiana, che dopo aver trascorso un'infanzia ed una fanciullezza serena e felice nel Borneo, scoperta una tresca amorosa tra i loro genitori, disgustate decidono di partire e di raggiungere l'Italia. Qui, trovandosi spaesate per gli usi e costumi completamente differenti dai loro, trovano una società molto chiusa con conseguente grande difficoltà ad inserirsi e fare conoscenze. Riescono tuttavia a trovare un posto di lavoro fisso, che però si rivela ben presto una vera tortura. Ognuna di esse trova anche un partner, ma con l'aiuto di una agenzia matrimoniale. Qui iniziano le visite ad alcuni monumenti e luoghi più importanti e famosi della Sicilia, ma anche di Roma, Firenze e Venezia, dove Anna passa la sua luna di miele. Tutto ciò è illustrato da parecchie immagini e precise ricostruzioni storiche. Quando, per le due amiche tutto sembrava andare finalmente per il meglio, qualcosa accade ... Il narratore di questa storia romantica, ma dal finale tragico, è in uno stato di sofferenza e estremo pessimismo per i malesseri della società. Le sue debolezze umane sono messe in risalto in maniera esagerata con avventure tragicomiche e farneticazioni mentali che portano ad una sua evasione totale dal mondo del lavoro e ad un suo vano tentativo di allontanarsi totalmente da questi malesseri.
