With young families more likely to choose soccer over church on Sunday morning and over five thousand churches closing every year, church as we know it is fast disappearing. Pastors and church leaders need new skills to grow their congregations and build larger, stronger, and more financially stable churches. Jump Start This Church! shows leaders how to sell their churches; it's about packing the pews, generating money for missions, and building a strong community presence while following the Gospel. The ultimate how-to guide for church growth, this book combines the unique front-line perspective of a caring pastor with the proven techniques of an expert in sales. Together, they approach church growth from a fresh perspective. The practical ideas in this user-friendly guide will trigger dialogue and action for churches throughout the world. Are you ready to take action TODAY and jump start your church?
