The Georgetown Heist: The Third Book of the Babylon Saga J.J. Honesty-Bey

It was just a simple diamond bank robbery that turned into a double homicide robbery. Now on their way from Washington D.C. to Miami, Florida to sell their precious stones. The diamonds, rubies, sapphires and emeralds are not what they think they are and the diamond bank itself wasn't what they thought it was. With multiple U.S. agencies including the F.B.I and Homeland Security, multiple law enforcement, Deputies, Sheriffs, State Troopers, mercenaries and terrorists after them. The youths are running for their lives from people trying to eliminate them. A Frenchman who came to America to rob the same diamond bank only to see it robbed by the youths, he is betrayed by those who employed him for the job. And now he's out on his own looking for the youths. What will happen if he or someone else finds them before the U.S. Government? With the world hot on their heels chasing them to Miami the last thing Juice-Hop, Bernard, Teeny-Man and Babylon needs is for one of them to not be who they supposed to be after pulling off the biggest score the world has ever seen with, The Georgetown Heist.
