Here is a wonderful gently used soft cover Sunset Book Needlepoint Techniques and Projects . Published by Lane Publishing, Menlo Park California in 1974 this book measures approximately 8 ¼ by 10 ¾ inches and has 80-pages that are jam-packed with illustrations (a few in color most in black and white) and instructions, providing an array of ideas for creative adventures for young and old alike. Starting with the history of the craft and covering materials and equipment -the book quickly jumps right into instructions for a large number of stitches from the most basic to some that are beautifully elaborate. The book has a section that guides you through a complete project from choosing materials and designs to design transfer all the way to framing and finishing. The book concludes with 30 pages of instructions for specific projects, from bell pulls and pin cushions to chessboards and handbags. The array of ideas for fun projects (and instructions to make them) is really superb.
