España, aparta de mí estos premios (Voces/ Literatura nº 127) (Spanish Edition) Fernando Iwasaki
¿Qué ocurriría en España si apareciera en las profundidades de una cueva un brigadista japonés ignorante del final de la guerra civil? España, aparta de mí estos premios es un libro desternillante que podría ser irreverente si la realidad no fuera más rocambolesca que la ficción, pues Fernando Iwasaki no sólo demuestra que es posible ganar siete premios literarios con el mismo relato, sino que resulta mucho más sencillo convertirse en vasco, andaluz o catalán siendo nipón antes que ultramarino.

Por eso España, aparta de mí estos premios es un homenaje al Concursante Latinoamericano Desconocido y al mismo tiempo quiere ser un preámbulo a las instrucciones para cazar premios "búfalo" en España, donde sólo hay que seguir al pie de la letra las recomendaciones de Groucho Marx: «Los grandes éxitos los obtienen los libros de cocina, los volúmenes de teología, los manuales de cómo hacer y los refritos de la Guerra Civil».
