The New Penelope and Other Stories and Poems Frances Fuller Victor

Frances Aurette Fuller Victor was an American historian and historical novelist. She has been described as "the first Oregon historian to gain regional and national attention."

As the author says about this book:

This collection consists of sketches of Pacific Coast life, most of which have appeared, from time to time, in the Overland Monthly, and other Western magazines. If they have a merit, it is because they picture scenes and characters having the charm of newness and originality, such as belong to border life.

The poems embraced in the collection, have been written at all periods of my life, and therefore cannot be called peculiarly Western. But they embody feelings and emotions common to all hearts, East or West; and as such, I dedicate them to my friends on the Pacific Coast, but most especially in Oregon.
