Quiasma, Metapsicología de mi posición terapéutica. (Spanish Edition) Andrés Ricardo Sánchez Bodas
Estamos ante un nuevo texto de Andres Sánchez Bodas creador un modelo terapéutico de reconocimiento internacional- El Enfoque Holístico Centrado en la Persona- e introductor en Sudamérica- en 1987- de la profesión del Counseling.

“Quiasma” es un libro que recorre su obra y la sintetiza integrando conceptos, que no solo enriquecen su ideario sino también su praxis terapéutica, introduciéndonos en un nuevo paradigma, que rompe con modelos clásicos, haciéndolo, a nuestro entender, mucho más adecuado al siglo XXI que estamos recorriendo.

El lector avezado podrá reconocer en sus artículos, una perspectiva psico- filosófica y la inspiración en autores tales como, y entre otros: Spinoza, Husserl, Merleau Ponty, Sartre, Heidegger, Deleuze, Guattari, Foucault, Simondon, que entramados con su ser un terapeuta “psi”, enriquecen su origen, basado en la Psicología Humanística en general y en Carl Rogers en particular.

De allí el sub título que acompaña “Metapsicología de mi posición terapéutica”, entendiendo por ella una integración que enriquece la psicología de base que sustenta.

Su posición profesional resulta en un abordaje sumamente original que el Lic. Clor Gomez Laumann, colaborador en este texto lo nomina como: Perceptivista- Ecológico- Transductivo y por supuesto Quiasmático. Nada más acertado ubicarlo en esos ejes conceptuales, que brindan la apertura que Sanchez Bodas nos propone, sea en la teoría como en la práctica profesional.

Aclaremos que seguirlo, en tanto escribe recursivamente, no es fácil, pero es fascinante, porque nos obliga a darnos cuenta de una experiencia, aquella que necesitamos ofrecernos si queremos ser terapeutas “psi”, del Siglo XXI.

Como editores proponemos abordar el texto y vivirla.
